Only 10 minutes from downtown Ottawa, Hautes Plaines has the most exciting topography of any club in the Ottawa Valley. Spanning a distance of about 100 feet from its lowest to its highest point, the course climbs up and down, offering an array of elevated tee shots and arresting views. From the sixth tee, golfers can see the entire city of Ottawa. Built in 1983 and redesigned by acclaimed Montreal architect Graham Cooke in 1993, Haute Plaines' tree-lined fairways and numerous bunkers challenge players to think strategically and take risks. The large greens are mildly undulating and fair. Hautes Plaines is just across the Quebec border in Gatineau.
